Cautious Portfolio

The portfolio's objective is to provide outperformance of the Wealth Management Association (WMA) Conservative Index over the medium term. Returns will be generated through both capital growth and income, with a bias towards developed and liquid capital markets. The risk will be diversified by holding collective investments. The management of the portfolio aims to meet the objective conservatively by taking managed risk through fund selection and asset allocation.

Recent Activity

During September tensions on the Korean peninsula slipped from the headlines as the Caribbean and the US were hit by two category five hurricanes. Gold prices dropped -3.2% whilst Brent Crude oil surged +10.1% as animosity between President Erdogan of Turkey and the independently-minded Kurds boiled over whilst Angela Merkel was returned to power albeit with a reduced majority. In local currency terms equities remained buoyant, with European and Japanese markets returning 4% during the month. However, driven by a potential rate rise the 5% rally in sterling (trade weighted) eroded any positive returns leaving the UK the best performing equity market with a 0.6% fall. Most sovereign bonds posted negative returns, ranging from a -0.3% fall in Italy to -2.4% for UK gilts. Corporate bonds were largely similar. Alternatives also fell over the month by circa 1%. Given this backdrop the benchmark index fell by 1.5% but positive returns from bonds and alternatives limited the fall within the Cautious portfolio. During the month the Aviva AIMS holding was sold following the departure of a lead fund manager and continued disappointing performance. The proceeds were reinvested across the existing holdings of JPM and Jupiter within the alternatives space.
